Last Week

We were privileged to have our meeting in the Cameron Park Community Service District's recently completed Community Center. Bill Hughes, a community activist, told about the history of the project. He complemented the work of Carlton Engineering in the site preparation and WLC Architects for the facility design.

Paul Ryan, the manager of the facility, then discussed the status of the construction. Work is complete on the Community Center and the gymnasium and swimming pool should be completed by November. The pool will not be put into operation until next spring.

The Community Center's main floor can accommodate up to 356 for assembly style seating and up to 252 for banquet seating. The hall is equipped with a digital projector and a 12x12 foot screen. The large hall can be divided with floor to ceiling sound dampening dividers for smaller meeting areas.

There is also a commercial grade kitchen to serve the facility.

Mike Collom observed that the October 10th Show & Shine is a major event and will require the efforts of as many CP Rotarians as possible. He asked that members sign up for either 2 or 4-hour shifts on that date.

HAPPY BUCKS :

Mike Collom attended Pollock Pines-Camino

Rotary's Evening in the Orchard with Bob Edwards and cleaned up on the raffle. Mike won the 50/50 raffle and will donate his share to the endowment fund. He received his check and the Endowment Fund is now $295 richer. Mike really likes to live the high life. If you remember a week or two ago he was the successful bidder to join Pres. Bill at "Lobster on the River". He and Chris were picked up by Pres. Bill and chauffeured to the event for which he was $10 Happy. He also got an invitation through what he called "Facelift" to a reunion of his 1962 eighth grade class and this also made him $10 Happy. Ulla Petersen also sat at Pres. Bill's table at "Lobster on the River" for which she contributed $50 to our Foundation.

On October 8th a golf tournament will be held at the Cold Springs Country Club for the benefit of the Boys and Girls Club. The event is sponsored by the Rotary Clubs of Placerville, Cameron Park and El Dorado Hills. Mike Collom bid $100 for a "T" time and offered the slot to Gary Reynolds.

Are you interested in going to prison. Rube Jessup is polling the membership for those interested in a tour of Folsom Prison. No date has been set and it will depend on those indicating an interest.
